

WORK FOR CHILDREN. CREATE REAL IMPACT. SHAPE THE FUTURE.

- Are you passionate about creating meaningful change?
- Do you want to work at the intersection of social justice, policy, and grassroots action?
- Are you a young, driven individual looking for a breakthrough in the field of child rights—and dreaming of global exposure?

THEN WHY ARE YOU WAITING?

JOIN OUR JUSTIVISM NETWORK.

JUST RIGHTS FOR CHILDREN INVITES YOU TO BECOME A

JUSTIVIST

HOW YOU WILL PROMOTE JUSTIVISM

- Travel across districts to engage with survivors and families, and document their stories of access to justice.
- Engage with district administration, child protection stakeholders, and civil society to amplify the voices of children and their families.
- Represent Just Rights for Children in key government and other initiatives.
- Support research, documentation, and policy development on child rights.
- Bridge coordination between field and programme teams.
- Organise dialogues with youth, universities, and key stakeholders.

LOCATION

Delhi-based

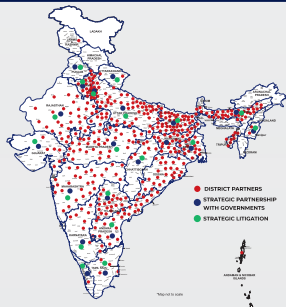

TRAVEL

(~50% travel across India)

This is not just a role—it's a movement.

A chance to stand for children, challenge harmful practices like child marriage, and contribute to building a safer, more just society.

About Just Rights for Children

Just Rights for Children is a national network working across India to prevent child exploitation and ensure justice for every child. Through strong partnerships with civil society and government systems, Just Rights for Children drives on-ground action and policy change.

Why Join?

- Direct field exposure across India
- Opportunity to work on high-impact child rights issues
- Engagement with policymakers, institutions, and grassroots leaders
- A platform to grow as a changemaker in the development sector

Just Rights. Be a Justivist. Practice Justivism.

APPLY HERE

www.justrightsforchildren.org/careers careers@justrightsforchildren.org